

Don't lose these names and numbers! Fill out this personal guide and keep it in a safe place. If your wallet/purse is lost or stolen you'll know who to call and what to say. When traveling, take along a similar list, but don't include account numbers or expiration dates.

Checking Accounts •• Immediately call to cancel checking accounts and start new ones.

Institution name:	Institution name:
Toll-free phone number:	Toll-free phone number:
Account Number:	Account number:

Credit Cards and Other "Plastic" •• Immediately cancel credit, debit, ATM & other cards, but ask for replacements.

Institution name:	Institution name:
Toll-free phone number:	Toll-free phone number:
Account Number	Account Number
Expiration Date:	Expiration Date:

Institution name:	Institution name:
Toll-free phone number:	Toll-free phone number:
Account Number	Account Number
Expiration Date:	Expiration Date:

Institution name:	Institution name:
Toll-free phone number:	Toll-free phone number:
Account Number	Account Number
Expiration Date:	Expiration Date:

Law Enforcement •• Immediately call to report a lost or stolen wallet and ask about filing an official report.

Agency:	Phone :
---------	---------

Credit Bureaus •• Call all 3 major bureaus' fraud departments to stop thieves from opening new accounts in your name.

Equifax:	1-800-525-6285
Experian:	1-800-301-7195
TransUnion:	1-800-680-7289

Other Agencies to Contact:

Social Security Administration:	1-800-772-1213
Medicaid Card Number:
State Dept of Motor Vehicles:	Driver's License Number:
US State Dept Regional Passport Agency:

Misc. Cards & Other (Insurance ID, medical plan, auto club, library, movie rental)

Item	Card / Account #	Phone

From the FDIC checklist <http://fdic.gov/consumers/consumer/news/cnfall97/checklist.html>